Mission – The mission of the Central Vermont Chamber of Commerce is to guide, inspire and promote the best interests of the businesses and professionals of the area, and to enhance economic, cultural, educational and recreational opportunities of its citizens and visitors.

Economic Development

- Working with firms in need of area statistics, possible sites and other pertinent information.
- Providing information and aid to tourists and promoting the area's tourist attractions.
- Presenting the community to people and businesses considering a move to Central Vermont.
- Posting available commercial sites on the web.

Promoting Business

- Promoting successful business skills through training seminars and consulting services.
- Offering business a vehicle to express its concerns to state legislators face-to-face.
- Hosting Central Vermont's comprehensive regional website.

Community Betterment

- Providing in-depth information on individual towns including contact information so people can easily become more active in the community.
- Organizing special programs that bring unique entertainment to our area.

Direct Benefits

- Chamber programs improve the community and marketplace for all businesses— members and non-members.
- Chamber members are listed on our website for a stronger Central Vermont marketing presence.
- Member companies receive regular updates and invitations to business-social functions where important contacts are made.
- Members tie into a network that provides opportunities to expand business relationships and to develop new management skills.

YOUR CHAMBER IS

A Department Of Your Business – A department staffed with skilled professionals who work diligently for your business, making Central Vermont a better place to live and make a living.

A Watchful Eye – seeing to it that the economy remains strong and the quality of life is maintained.

A Powerful Team – of hundreds of members, volunteers and staff working together to constantly promote and sell our community to prospective residents and business ventures.

The Front Door – of our community. The place where visitors and newcomers get their first impression of our area. The Chamber is at the heart of the community.

WHO ELSE WOULD?

If there were no businesses willing to invest in the future of our community, if there were no Chamber of Commerce, who would …

Host Vermont's most comprehensive regional website covering everything from tourism and relocation information, to a local business directory, to shopping to demographics, and town-by-town information.

Answer thousands of questions about our community from tourists, prospective residents and new businesses.

Maintain an office with full time professional staff devoted to the commercial, civic and retail development of Central Vermont

Coordinate the talents of local business people creating powerful teams to address the basic issues of regional promotion and development, housing, employment and taxes.

Pursue opportunities to make our area a better place to live and make a living.
